ELIGIBLE STUDENTS WILL BE INVITED TO SUBMIT THEIR SCIENCE PROJECTS ON A WEBSITE DESIGNATED BY THE AAT PROJECT. PARTICIPANTS WILL UPLOAD A SHORT VIDEO, PRESENTING THEIR GROUNDBREAKING PROJECT, RESEARCH, INVENTION OR TECHNOLOGICAL BREAKTHROUGH. AFTER AN EXTENSIVE VETTING PROCESS, THE BEST AND BRIGHTEST WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Entity:

The AAT Project (America's Amazing Teens LLC), Delaware, DE is referred to as the “Entity.”

Eligibility:

The AAT Project is open to individuals between the ages of 12 1/2 - 24 (must be in school) from all over the world. No Entrant can register until they turn 12 1/2. If an Entrant turns 25 after he/she has submitted his/her project, he/she will not be disqualified. All minor Entrants must have his/her parent's or legal guardian's permission to register. The Entity reserves the right to verify an individual's eligibility to participate.

Minors – Parents and Legal Guardians: The parent or legal guardian of an Entrant under the legal age of majority in his/her jurisdiction of residence (as defined below): (a) will ensure that the Entrant in respect of whom they agree to these Official Rules will comply with these Official Rules; and (b) warrants that the Entrant is capable of agreeing to these Official Rules and giving the consent contained herein. Your parent or legal guardian must agree to indemnify the Released Parties (as defined below) for and against: (a) any claims made by you or your family against the Released Parties in connection with The AAT Project; and (b) any losses (including any liability) caused by any of your conduct which is inconsistent with these Official Rules.

How to Apply:

You may apply with only one (1) project submission at a time (“Project” or “Entry”), either as an Entrant or a Team Member. Entries not submitted in accordance with the instructions provided on the Site and these Official Rules may be disqualified, at the sole discretion of the Entities.

To apply: Submit one (1) Entry either as an individual or as part of a group comprised of up to three (3) persons (“Team” and “Team Members”). If applying individually or as part of a Team (each, an “Applicant” or “Entrant” or “You”), follow the steps below.

Applying as an Individual:

Read these Rules and follow the instructions provided.

Request Parental/Legal Guardian Consent

Parental/Legal Guardian consent is a requirement for all entrants under the age of eighteen (18). The AAT Project must receive a signed Parental/Guardian Consent form from you to participate before you are eligible to submit an entry.

Visit the “Parental/Legal Guardian Consent” section of www.theaatproject.com/downloads/ParentalConsent.pdf for more information and to learn about how to receive consent.

You will need your Parent or Legal Guardian’s contact information, and signature during the registration process. The Entity reserves the right to contact the entrant’s parent or legal guardian to confirm their agreement to the entrant’s participation. Without confirmation, the Entry will be DISQUALIFIED.

If you are 18 or older, you must read and consent to the “18 or Older” section of the Parental/Legal Guardian Consent form in order to qualify.

Upload Your Entry and Submit

Once you have received your Parental/Guardian Consent form and agreed to all the terms and conditions, you are able to upload your Entry to a secure Private Portal. The Entry must follow the technical, creative, and legal entry requirements set out in these Official Rules and the theaatproject.com site (which are incorporated herein by reference).

You may submit your Entry once you have filled in all required sections on the registration page, but you can only submit one at a time. After you have submitted, your Entry will be evaluated by the Vetting Division. Once your Entry is approved, it will be reviewed by the judging panel and you will be eligible to become a Monthly Finalist.

Make sure you have everything ready before registering. You will not be able to make any changes once you submit your Entry.

Applying as a Team:

You must assign a Team Leader in order to register. You are responsible to present all Team Member(s) including everyone's contribution to the Team, in your Team Entry.

Request Parental/Legal Guardian Consent

The Team Leader will be responsible for providing all the Member(s) of the Team, and the parent(s) the terms and conditions of the Parental/Legal Guardian Consent form.

The Team Leader and his/her parent or legal guardian will confirm that all of the Member(s) of the Team, and the parent(s) have read, understood and agreed to the terms and conditions of the consent form.

The Team Leader will need his/her parent or legal guardian's contact information, and signature during the registration process. The Entity reserves the right to contact the entrant's parent or legal guardian to confirm they agree to the entrant's participation. Without confirmation, the Entry will be DISQUALIFIED.

If the Team Leader is 18 or older, he/she must read and consent to the "Team Leader, 18 or Older" section of the Parental/Legal Guardian Consent form in order to qualify.

Upload Your Entry and Submit

The Team Leader will be the one to upload and submit the Team Entry.

Once you have received your Parental/Guardian Consent and agreed to all the terms and conditions, you are able to upload your Entry to a secure Private Portal. The Entry must follow the technical, creative, and legal entry requirements set out in these Official Rules and the theaatproject.com site (which are incorporated herein by reference).

You may submit your Entry once you have filled in all required sections on the registration page, but you can only submit one at a time. After you have submitted, your Entry will be evaluated by the Vetting Division. Once your Entry is approved, it will be reviewed by the judging panel and you will be eligible to become a Monthly Finalist.

Make sure you have everything ready before registering. You will not be able to make any change once you submit your Entry.

Entity reserves the right to disqualify any Entrant who, in their sole discretion, they determine has violated the spirit of the Site or breached a representation (scientific or otherwise) or warranty at any time. The Entity reserves the right to review all Entries received during one Year and will only post a limited number of Entries on the Site that conform to these Official Rules, as determined by the Entity in its sole discretion ("Eligible Entries"). Entries that do not comply with these Official Rules as determined by Entity, in their sole discretion, will be disqualified and will not appear on the Site. You agree that Released Parties (as defined below) are not responsible for any unauthorized use of Entries by third parties. The Entity does not guarantee the posting of any Entry.

Technical Limitation of Liability: To the extent permitted by applicable law, neither the Entity nor any of their respective parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, advertising and promotion agencies, legal and financial advisors, any and all companies associated with The AAT Project (including, without limitation, all prize providers) or any other entities that may be added to the Site as participating after these Official Rules are published, and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, agents, licensees, licensors and employees, nor any Internet access providers (collectively “Released Parties”) (except where due to the negligence of a Released Party) are responsible for incorrect or inaccurate entry of information, human error, technical malfunction, lost/delayed data transmission, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, line failure of any telephone, computer or other network, computer equipment, software or any combination thereof, inability to access the Site, for problems uploading any Entries or downloading any related materials from the Site or for late, lost, stolen, damaged, misdirected, incorrect, garbled, delayed, undelivered or incomplete entries or other materials. For purposes of these Official Rules, receipt of Entry occurs when the Site’s servers successfully receive the uploaded Entry on the Site and record the required Entry information. Any Entry/Entrant information collected shall be used only in a manner consistent with the consent given by Entrants, at the time of entry, with these Official Rules (specifically including the Entity’s Privacy Policies referred to above).

Determining the Eligible Entries

Each Entry will be vetted. If the entry qualifies, that entry also qualifies to apply to The AAT Project’s Grant Program. A Vetting Division, made up of graduate students from top universities in America, will research the projects and determine which Entries are qualified (“Eligible Entries”).

The Entry Requirements and the criteria below shall, collectively, be considered the “Criteria” for purposes of these Official Rules.

All Entries will be evaluated base on:

- Research
- Development
- Presentation
- Originality
- Potential for Innovation in their respective fields

Every Entry will be vetted within the Month when it is submitted.

For all Eligible Entries: The Entity will apply for and purchase a provisional patent on your behalf, prior to the Eligible Entries being placed onto the Site to protect your ideas, projects and innovation.

The AAT Project’s Grant Program

A grant is a monetary form of aid that does not need to be repaid, and is most commonly awarded to students who need help paying off educational expenses. This is precisely why awarding grants to the outstanding ambassadors of The AAT Project makes sense, as our company’s mission is to help the underserved world of young geniuses. Below is an outline of the three types of grants that The AAT Project offers.

1. Development of the Individual's Project

-a grant offered under this category is solely for the purpose of aiding with the development of the individual's project, whether that be to help with the cost of applying for a patent, constructing a prototype, or simply for supplies.

2. Furthering the Individual's Education

-a grant offered under this category is solely for the purpose of furthering the individual's education, whether that be to aid with the cost of college tuition and college related expenses, or any other expenses related to the individual's education.

3. Personal Need

-a grant offered under this category is for the personal need of the individual, whether that be to secure housing, food, or other basic necessities that are conducive to living a healthy life.

Ownership of Entry/Grant of Rights:

By applying to enter The AAT Project, and to the extent allowed by law, you grant the Entity and their respective affiliates, licensees, promotional partners, developers, legal representatives, assigns, agents and licensees (collectively, the "Licensed Parties"), a perpetual (except in France and Spain, for the duration of rights), worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, sub licensable, unconditional and transferable license to edit, modify, cut, rearrange, add to, delete from, reproduce, encode, store, modify, copy, transmit, publish, post, broadcast, display, adapt, exhibit and/or otherwise use or reuse (without limitation as to when or to the number of times used), your Entry, name, address, image, voice, likeness, statements, background and biographical material including, but not limited to, all materials submitted, as well as any additional photographic images, video images, portraits, documents, interviews or other materials arising out of your participation (with or without using your name) in any and all media, in any language, throughout the world, and in any manner, for trade, advertising, promotional, commercial, or any other purposes without further review, notice, approval, consideration, or compensation to Entrant or any third party. For Polish residents, the worldwide license is being granted at the moment of the Entry is submitted, for the non-revocable period of five (5) years without a right of termination. Any participation in the Live Judging Panel and any associated audio or video recordings, practices or other events associated with the Live Judging Panel shall be owned by The AAT Project (America's Amazing Teens LLC). who may exploit, edit, modify, and distribute the Live Judging Panel performance and all elements of such participation, including, without limitation, the names and likenesses of any persons or locations embodied therein, in any and all media now known or hereafter devised, in any language, throughout the world, and in any manner, for trade, advertising, promotional, commercial, or any other purposes without further review, notice, approval, consideration, or compensation to those accepted or any third party. In the case where the Entrant is a minor in Spain, any of the above rights and permissions must be granted by the Entrant's parent or legal guardian and notified to the Ministerio Fiscal.

If you are a minor in Spain, the above license must be granted your parent or legal guardian, unless you are between 16 and 18 years old and lives independently in accordance with the provisions of Article 44 of the current Spanish Copyright Law. You may be asked to submit your original video, presentation files, entry materials, research documentation, works cited, or other documentation/materials deemed necessary by the Entity in its sole discretion. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

Limitations of Liability:

Except where prohibited by law and to the extent that the negative consequences described below are the foreseeable result of matters within the Released Parties' reasonable control and are the direct consequence of negligence or default by any of them, the Released Parties are not responsible for any incorrect or inaccurate entry of information, human error, technical malfunction, lost/delayed data transmission, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, line failure of any telephone, computer or other network, computer equipment, software or any combination thereof, inability to access the site, for the inability to upload or download any related materials from the site, or for late, lost, damaged, misdirected, delayed, garbled, incorrect inaccurate, stolen, damaged, or incomplete Entries or votes.

General Conditions:

The Entity's and Judging Panel's decisions are final and binding in all matters relating to The AAT Project, including interpretation and application of these Official Rules (without prejudice of any claim that could be filed before the Court). Potential Finalists and Potential Winners and/or their parents or guardians may be contacted by Entity via email. In the event of a dispute as to the identity of an Entrant based on an email address, the Entry in question may be disqualified subject to the Entity's sole discretion. The Entity reserves the right, in their sole discretion, to disqualify any individual found tampering with the entry process or entry materials or otherwise interfering with the proper administration or violating these Official Rules and void all associated Entries and/or votes. The Entity may cancel, modify, or suspend accepting projects (or portion thereof) due to a force majeure event or any other event beyond the Entity's reasonable control. In the event of termination, subject to the approval of the RACJ in Quebec, Entity reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to determine those accepted from among all non-suspect, Eligible Entries received up to time of such action using the judging procedure set forth herein. You hereby acknowledge and agree that the relationship between you and the Entity is not a confidential, fiduciary, exclusive or other special relationship, and your decision to submit an Entry in connection with The AAT Project does not place the Entity in a position that is any different from the position held by members of the general public with regard to elements of the Entry, other than as set forth in these Official Rules.

Similar Ideas:

You understand and acknowledge that: i) Entity has wide access to ideas, stories, designs, film, tape, video, and other materials, and those new ideas are constantly being submitted to it or being developed by their own employees; ii) many ideas or stories may be competitive with, similar to, or identical to content in your Entry and/or each other in theme, idea, plot, format, or other respects; iii) You will not be entitled to any compensation as a result of Entity's use of any such similar or identical material that has or may come to Entity, or any of them, from other sources. Except where prohibited by law you acknowledge and agree that the Released Entity do not now and shall not have in the future any duty or liability, direct or indirect, vicarious, contributory, or otherwise, with respect to the infringement or protection of your copyright in and to the Entries. Finally, you acknowledge that, with respect to any claim of yours relating to or arising out of any Entity's actual or alleged exploitation or use of any Entry or other material submitted in connection with The AAT Project, the damage, if any, thereby caused to you will not be irreparable or otherwise sufficient to entitle you to seek any injunctive or other equitable relief or in any way enjoin, otherwise interfere with, delay, or interrupt the production, distribution, exhibition, or other exploitation of any production based on, or allegedly based on, your Entry, and your rights and remedies in any such event shall be strictly limited to the right to recover damages, if any, in an action at law.

Personal Data:

Your Personal information will be used in accordance with The AAT Project Privacy Policy located online at <http://www.theaatproject.com/PrivacyPolicy.pdf> and in addition as otherwise set out in these Official Rules for the purpose of administering Entrants. You expressly agree to the use of your personal information for such purpose. The Entity will not sell, share or otherwise disclose information collected in any manner with third parties, other than those parties necessary to fulfill the above purposes, unless you have given your prior express consent to receive additional information from the Entity or a third party. You have a right of access to, modification and withdrawal of your personal data. You also have the right of opposition to the data collection, under certain circumstances, in accordance with applicable law. To exercise such right, write to The AAT Project (America's Amazing Teens LLC). The data controller and data recipient is The AAT Project (America's Amazing Teens LLC), Delaware, DE.

Choice of Law:

Unless the laws relevant for the domicile of the Registered User provide otherwise, this is governed by United States law and is subject to all applicable federal, state, and local laws. Except where prohibited by law, any and all legal actions or claims arising in connection with The AAT Project must be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in New York, in the state of New York.

International Students/Scholars Specific Notices:

If any provision of these rules is invalid under the law, rules or regulations of a particular country, it will only apply to the extent permitted. In addition to the tax liability disclosures in these rules, those accepted are subject to abide by the income reporting and, if applicable, the payment of any taxes due per the laws, rules and regulations of the winners' country of residence.

For Canada:

For Quebec, Canada residents only, all legal requirements concerning the La Regie des Alcools des Courses et des Jeux (the "Regie") shall apply. If an accepted is from Canada he or she may be required in writing to assign any copyright to the applicable Entity. Any litigation respecting the conduct or organization of a publicity contest may be submitted to the Regie for a ruling. Any litigation respecting the awarding of a prize may be submitted to the Regie only for the purpose of helping the parties reach a settlement.

For Mexico:

If you are from Mexico, by applying, you hereby expressly agree and accept that for all that is related to the interpretation, performance and enforcement of this Official Rules, each of them expressly submit themselves to the laws of the United States of America and to the jurisdiction of the competent courts in New York, in the State of New York, United States of America, expressly waiving to any other jurisdiction that could correspond to them by virtue of their present or future domicile or by virtue of any other cause.

For Germany:

Nothing shall exclude your liability as well as the liability of the Entities for damages to life, body and health and for intent, gross negligence and fraudulent concealment of defects or breach of any guaranteed quality ("Beschaffenhheitsgarantie"). In cases of slight negligence, you and THE ENTITIES are only liable for the breach of cardinal obligations ("Kardinalpflichten" meaning those obligations which must be fulfilled for an orderly performance of the contract and those obligations where the parties regularly rely on the performance of the other party); In these cases, the liability is restricted to any loss or damage which was reasonably foreseeable at the time THIS CONTRACT COMING into effect.

Right to Withdraw for Legal Residents of Italy:

If you are a consumer, according to Article 64 of the Italian Consumer Code, you will be entitled to a period of ten (10) business days to withdraw your Entry without any penalty or cause. The period for exercising the right of withdrawal may be exercised by sending a letter stating the entrant's desire to withdraw via email to assistant@theaatproject.com (provided that confirmation is also given by certified email no later than forty-eight (48) hours thereafter) by no later than ten

(10) days following the date of his/her entry.
